Death of Henry Clay

Preamble & Resolutions

When a great and good man falls from amongst us, the Nation weeps. No more shall the voice of Henry Clay be heard in the Halls of the National Legislature, spreading oil upon the troubled waters; he is dead; his spirit has returned to the God who gave it, may it rest in peace:-

In commemoration of this great national calamity, and in expression of our sincere sorrow:

Be it resolved, by the Mayor and Alderman of the City of San Antonio in Council assembled; that in the death of the Hon. Henry Clay, the people of these United States are cast in mourning, and that we sincerely join with the Cities and Towns of our Country in expressing our heartfelt sorrow by requesting a suspension of all labour, and the closing of all places of business on Saturday 17th from 9 O'clock A.M. until 4 O'clock P.M. and that all the flags in the City be raised at half mast from Sun rise to Sun set:- and ½ hour guns be fired

Be it resolved, that these resolutions be published in the papers of the City, and a Copy transmitted to the family of the deceased:-

City Hall San Antonio July 14 1852.
