The following discussion took place:

MAYOR LILA COCKRELL: All right, Gentlemen, you have considered this ordinance in executive session, or considered the implications involved in this matter. The passage of this Resolution simply rescinds the action we took this morning. It would not preclude a later review of any further action the Council wished to take in this matter. Is there any further discussion?

MR. BOB BILLA: I move to rescind.

MR. AL ROHDE: I second it.

MAYOR COCKRELL: It's been moved and seconded. Any further discussion?

MAYOR PRO-TEM RICHARD TENIENTE: Just very quickly, Madam Mayor, I will not support this motion at this point because I don't feel that the situation requires this type of action. At this time I'm still in full support of what - and I know that the Council is - but I feel that there has been some sort of intimidation and this is my personal opinion. I will not support it, and I'll vote against it.

MAYOR COCKRELL: All right, the Clerk will call the roll.

On the following roll call the motion carrying with it the adoption of the Resolution was passed and approved:

AYES: Billa, Cisneros, Hartman, Rohde, Cockrell; NAYS: Teniente, Nielsen;
ABSENT: Pyndus, Black.

There being no further business to come before the Council, the meeting adjourned at 6:40 P.M.
